- 15.4 The Company shall not be liable to the Purchaser or be deemed to be in breach of the Contract by reason of any delay in performing, or any failure to perform, any of the Company's obligations in relation to the Products, if the delay or failure was due to any cause beyond the Company's reasonable control.

16. LIMITS OF LIABILITY

- 16.1 The Company does not make any recommendations to the Purchaser as to the suitability of the Products for any particular use and it is the sole responsibility of the Purchaser to satisfy itself that the Products are of a specification which will make them fit for the purpose for which the Purchaser may intend that they be used. Accordingly subject to clause 13.1 and to clause 16.4 any warranties or conditions implied by law as to the quality or fitness for any particular Product are hereby expressly excluded. The Purchaser hereby warrants and represents to the Company that it is a business customer, acting in the course of a business and is not a consumer within the meaning of the Sale of Goods and Supply of Services Act 1980 and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the provisions of Sections 13, 14 and 15 of the Sale of Goods Act 1893, as amended by the Sale of Goods and Supply of Services Act 1980 shall not apply to this Contract.

- 16.2 Notwithstanding any other clause of these terms the maximum aggregate liability of the Company under or in connection with the Contract arising from any incident or series of related incidents shall not exceed the lesser of the total price of the relevant product, batch of products or services purchased by the purchaser. For the avoidance of doubt any money withheld by the Purchaser from the Company (by way of set off, abatement or howsoever) shall be included in any calculation of whether or not the said maximum aggregate liability has been reached and/or exceeded as the case may be.
- 16.3 Nothing set out in these terms and conditions shall relieve the Company from any liability that the Company may have under Section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 or for fraudulent misrepresentation under the Misrepresentation Act 1967.
- 16.4 Nothing in this Contract shall or is intended to reduce or limit the Company's liability in respect of (a) fraud or (b) death or personal injury caused by the Company's negligence as defined in the Unfair Contract Terms Act, 1977.

17. INDEMNITY

- 17.1 Notwithstanding Clauses 15 and 16 of the Contract, the Company shall not be liable and the Purchaser shall indemnify and hold the Company harmless against any claim by or loss (including but not limited to loss of profits and goodwill) or damage to any person or property directly or indirectly occasioned by or arising from any of the following events:

 - 17.1.3 The use of Products on unsuitable equipment or for a use not expressly authorised by the Company;
 - 17.1.4 The failure by the Purchaser or any other person or persons to implement the Company's recommendations in respect of Products and/or defects and/or faults previously advised by the Company;
 - 17.1.5 Any repair, adjustment, alteration or modification of Products by any person other than the Company without the Company's prior approval in writing;
 - 17.1.6 The storage, use, operation or maintenance of any Products otherwise than in accordance with the Company's instructions, catalogues and manuals;
 - 17.1.7 Any breach or default by or on the part of the Purchaser or any person(s) other than the Company including:

- (b) Any failure or delay by the Purchaser or any person(s) to provide required information or documentation concerning the environment and/or industrial application of the Products or the provision of inaccurate or untimely information or documentation by the Purchaser or such person(s) in relation to the environment and/or industrial application of Products.

- 17.2 The Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from and against all actions, claims, costs and proceedings including inter alia, all loss (including loss of profits), damages, costs and expenses awarded against or incurred by the Company in connection with or paid or agreed to be paid by the Company in settlement of any claim which arises due to the manufacture and/or supply of the Products based on the Purchaser's drawings or specifications, where such drawings or specifications are inaccurate, incorrect, unsuitable or otherwise at fault or where it is alleged that they involve an infringement of a patent, copyright, registered design, topography right or design copyright or any other intellectual property right.
- 17.3 The indemnity in Clause 17.1 and Clause 17.2 shall extend to any costs, losses and expenses incurred by the Company in relation to any such claim, loss (including loss of profit, goodwill etc.) or damage and shall continue in force notwithstanding the termination of this Contract.

18. FORCE MAJEURE

- 18.2 Should a Force Majeure event prevail for a continuous period in excess of thirty (30) days, then the Parties shall enter into bona fide discussions with a view to alleviating its effects, or to agree such alternative commercial arrangements that may be fair and reasonable to remedy the situation with the aim of Purchaser supporting the Company in the fulfilment of the order affected.
- 18.3 Notwithstanding 18.2 above, should the Force Majeure event prevail for a continuous period in excess of ninety (90) days then either Party may elect one of the following remedies: (a) to terminate this Contract in whole or in part; or (b) to suspend this Contract, in whole or part, for the duration of the Force Majeure circumstances by formally notifying the other Party in writing.

- 19.3 The Company will indemnify the Purchaser in respect of any infringement of letters, patent, registered design, trade mark or copyright (published at the date of the Contract) by the use or sale of any article or material supplied by the Company to the Purchaser but only in respect of such foreseeable and reasonable costs and damages as the Purchaser may (having mitigated its losses and liabilities to the fullest possible extent) reasonably incur or be held legally liable to pay in any action for such infringement. Provided always that:

- 19.3.2 this indemnity is conditional upon the Purchaser's giving to the Company at the earliest possible time, notice in writing of any claim being made or action threatened or brought against the Purchaser and on the Purchaser's permitting the Company at the Company's own expense, to conduct any litigation that may ensue and all negotiations for a settlement of the claim otherwise this indemnity shall be deemed void.
